

Dirtbag Blues

I don't bring my garbage down.
I don't bring my garbage down,
don't bring it down.

Yeah, I leave it where it is.
Yeah, I leave it where it is,
yeah, where it is.

(interlude)
"You wanna get the boot, as I see!"
my landlady got stroppy.
Because I am, admittedly,
a little, little sloppy.

Crowds of beer tins on the floor,
Crowds of beer tins on the floor,
dropped on the floor.

Empty bottles everywhere
Empty bottles everywhere
dropped everywhere.

(interlude)
So I should edge off right away.
My lodge's become too sleazy.
In other words, that is to say:
Here I feel uneasy.

It is time for me to move.
It is time for me to move
to another flat.

Well, I hope the rent is well.
Well, I hope the rent is well,
is bearable.
