

Never trust a Bluesman without his guitar

Keep an eye on your daughters.
Keep an eye on your wife.
Keep your finger on the trigger
of your sharpened jack-knife.
Lock away your sweet aunties and your old grandma.
And even if you feel they are secure so far:
Never trust a Bluesman without his guitar!

(Ladies, enjoy Andy!) Solostrophe

Never trust a Bluesman
Never trust a Bluesman
Never trust a Bluesman
Never trust a Bluesman without his guitar
Never trust a Bluesman
Never trust a Bluesman
And even if you feel you are secure so far:
Never trust a Bluesman without his guitar!
